5. The Mortgagee may at any time renew this mortgage, extend the time for payment of the debt or any part thereof or interest thereon and waive any of the covenants or conditions of this mortgage in whole or in part, either at the request of any one or more of the Mortgagors or of any person having an interest in the property, take or release other security, or any part of this property, or such other security, grant extensions, renewals or indulgences therein, or apply to the payment of principal and interest on the mortgage debt any part or all of the proceeds obtained by sale, foreclosure or receivership as herein provided, without resort or regard to other security, all without in any way releasing the Mortgagors or any of them, from any of the covenants or conditions of this mortgage, or releasing the unreleased part of the property herein described from the lien of this mortgage for the amount of the mortgage debt, and may release any party primarily or secondarily liable on the mortgage debt without releasing any other party liable thereon and without releasing the property subject thereto.

Upon default in any of the covenants or conditions of this mortgage, the Mortgagee shall be entitled without notice to the Mortgagors, or any of them, to the immediate possession of the property and to the appointment of a receiver of the property to operate the same, without regard to the adequacy thereof as security for the mortgage debt, and the Mortgagors shall pay all costs in connection therewith, and upon any default, whether or not a receiver be appointed, the rents and profits of the property are hereby assigned to the Mortgagee as additional security.

7. The rights, powers, privileges and discretions specifically granted to the Mortgagee under this mortgage are not in limitation of, but in addition to those to which the Mortgagee is entitled under any general or local laws relating to mortgages in the State of Maryland, now or hereafter existing.
